Well that was a half term that flew! We cannot believe how quickly the last 5 weeks have flown by here in nursery – we think that the extra lovely sunshine and long bank holiday weekends must have contributed! School Transition sessions

We are holding some transition sessions in school, run by Children and Family Wellbeing, to help you get ready for when your child starts 'big school'. The sessions are a fantastic opportunity to get lots of information about what to expect for your child as they transition to primary school and how to handle their emotions– and yours (!), as you navigate this new time! These are really useful so please do attend one!
